

Application to maintain higher NTGPASS contribution salary

NTGPASS annual review

The Northern Territory Government and Public Authorities' Superannuation Scheme (NTGPASS) annual review occurs on 1 October each year. At this time you can:

- apply to the Commissioner of Superannuation to accept your previous higher contribution salary as the contribution salary for this annual review
- elect to change your NTGPASS contribution rate (that is, the percentage of your contribution salary that you contribute to your accumulation account).

You need to understand how the employer component of your NTGPASS benefit is calculated to understand the importance of the annual review.

How the NTGPASS employer component is calculated

The NTGPASS employer component is calculated using this formula:

$$0.025 \times \text{benefit points} \times \text{NTGPASS benefit salary}$$

Benefit points – you accrue 1 benefit point for each 1 per cent of compulsory contributions you make over a full year.

NTGPASS benefit salary – the average of your last three full-time equivalent contribution salaries at 1 October prior to ceasing NTGPASS membership. The salaries are indexed by movements in Average Weekly Ordinary Time Earnings to bring them to current values.

What to do if your contribution salary has reduced or you previously maintained a higher contribution salary

The NTGPASS employer component is partly based on your NTGPASS benefit salary. If you think your current salary and/or approved allowances may have decreased from that used last year (other than due to commencing or varying part-time employment) you may request consideration by the Commissioner of Superannuation (Commissioner) for approval to contribute based on last year's higher contribution salary.

In considering your request, the Commissioner will take into account the reason for the salary reduction, and whether it is reasonable to allow you to continue to contribute based on your past contribution salary. For example, the Commissioner may decline your request if your salary has reduced as a consequence of you choosing to take a lower paid position, if you no longer qualify for the payment of an allowance or if you are an Executive Contract Officer whose salary has reduced as a consequence of signing a new contract.

Note: Approvals to maintain higher contribution salaries lapse on 30 September each year. Approval in a previous year does not automatically carry over to a new year.

About your contribution rate

The NTGPASS Rules stipulate you must contribute at a rate of 2% to 6% of your contribution salary. For some Executive Contract Officers, they will need to contribute at a rate of 4% to 6%. This is paid from your after-tax income and is how you earn benefit points.
